

Andrzej Sadowski

– Chief Marketing Officer and co-founder

Andrzej is an experienced entrepreneur with twenty years of credentials in advertising, photography and the film industry. Andrzej successfully ran the Getty Images) operations in Poland for 17 years, generating millions of dollars revenue for the stock photography giant. He is also an independent film producer and director. Andrzej is a new technologies enthusiast and a fan of good design and functionality.

He is committed to perfection and creativity, both in business and in his private life, and brings to the MirroCool team an aesthetic eye.